Aid & Attendance

The Aid and Attendance (A&A) Pension provides benefits for veterans and surviving spouses who require the regular attendance of another person to assist in eating, bathing, dressing and undressing or toileting. It also includes individuals who are blind or a patient in a nursing home because of mental or physical incapacity. Assisted care in an assisting living facility also qualifies.

Services

The Veterans' Services Office has trained service officers who are certified by the Florida Department of Veterans Affairs to assist veterans, dependents, survivors, and others. The service officers and staff members strive to educate the public about veterans' benefits and serve as the veterans' advocate when filing a valid claim with the US Department of Veteran Affairs (VA).

Need More Help?

Referrals, websites, helplines and other resources are all great tools, but sometimes we all need the guidance of an experienced professional to help us understand our options.

One Senior Place offers a FREE 30-minute one-on-one consultation with someone who fully comprehends the personal goals and medical needs of seniors to make your situation less stressful. A One Senior Place Aging Services Expert can help you determine the level of care needed and put you in touch directly with the appropriate resources.

Continued Geriatric Care Management Services are also available for those who desire in-home access to a Registered Nurse or Social Worker to help ensure independence and the highest quality of life.

Schedule an appointment today with a One Senior Place Aging Services Expert in Brevard at 321-751-6771 or in Greater Orlando at 407-949-6733.
